

Interpret a Data Visualization

Business Analytics - MCIT Nanodegree Program

Kenya

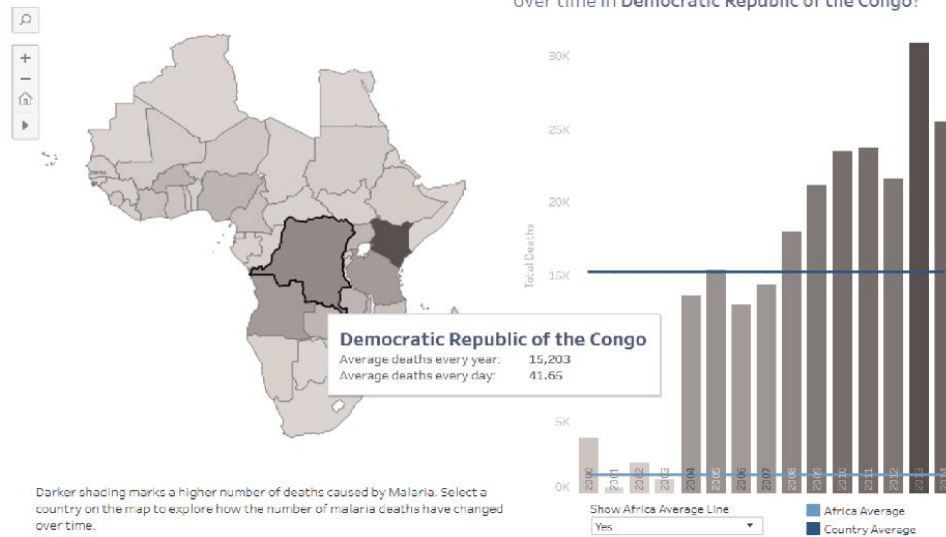

- Kenya registered the highest average number of deaths per year 27,896 compared to Africa average number of deaths per year 1303.
- Kenya registered the highest number of deaths per in 2003 with over than 50K of deaths, even though Kenya had a recovery year in 2004 and registered 25k number of deaths below the country average number of deaths, the number of deaths increased the year after to 40K.
- In 2010, Kenya started to recover again from malaria and registered 26k number of deaths, however; the huge recovery started in 2011 where Kenya registered number of deaths below the Africa average number of deaths per year 1303 and continued with this rate the years after.

Democratic Republic of the Congo

Which countries are most affected?

How have the number of malaria deaths changed over time in Democratic Republic of the Congo?

- Democratic Republic of the Congo registered the second highest average number of deaths per year 15,203 compared to Africa average number of deaths per year 1303.
- Democratic Republic of the Congo didn't start to register high malaria death cases until 2004, the number of registered deaths increases over the years until in 2013, Democratic Republic of the Congo registered the highest number of deaths with 30K which is double the country average number of deaths.
- In 2001 Democratic Republic of the Congo registered the lowest number of deaths with less than 1K, which is below Africa average number of deaths per year.